Works.
William Fountain, Fountain Lbr.
Co.
L. J. Marshall, Marshall Paper Co.
John Diderich, Saecker-Diderich
Co.
John L. Hettinger, Ideal Lbr. and Coal Co.

The fifteen men named above were elected directors of Appleton Chamber of Commerce at the first meeting of the new association in the circuit courtroom of the courthouse last evening.
The 15 were selected from a list of 30 names submitted by a nominating committee appointed by W. C.
Wing, chairman of the membership committee.

The meeting was attended by more than 200 persons, representing in excess of 600 memberships. It was one of the largest meetings of representatives Appleton men held in a long time.

The constitution and by-laws, adopted last evening, provided that directors shall be elected for one,
two and three years terms and that at the next annual meeting all elections will be for three years. It was decided that the candidates receiving the largest number of votes should serve for three years; those receiving the second largest number for two years, and those standing third in the list to serve for the shortest term.

A meeting of the directors will be called within three days to elect officers and to make other arrangements for carrying on the business of the association. Officers are to be a president, two vice presidents, a secretary and treasurer. All the officers with the exception of secretary will be elected from the membership of the board. The secretary is to be a man familiar with commercial organization work. No steps have been taken thus far to secure a man capable of taking care of the work here.

The nominating committee proposed that directors be elected according to a group system which would give the various activities here representation on the board. It was suggested that two men be elected from a group of representative pulp and paper manufacturers; two to represent general manufacturers; one professional man; one banker; three merchants; one real estate and insurance man; one representative of public utilities and four representatives of the general public.

When the votes were counted,
however, it was found that the group system had been disregarded to some extent and, based on the nominating committee's grouping, the directors represent the various activities as follows: Pulp and paper manufacturers, one, William C. Wing; general manufacturers, three, J. J. Plank, Luther G. Graef and G. E. Buchanan; professional man, one, J. P. Frank; bankers, one, R. S. Powell; merchants, three, William Fountain, J. D. Steele and L. J. Marshall; real estate and insurance, one, D. P. Steinberg; public utilities, one, A. K. Ellis;
general public, four, John R.
Diderich, John Conway, John L. Hettinger and T. A. Gallagher.

In addition to the thirty names submitted by the committee, the names of Martin Boldt and Henry Boldt were written in as directors from the public group. It was made plain that nominations from the floor were in order, but none were suggested.

Ballots were deposited in the ballot box as the names of Chamber of Commerce members were called by
T. A. Gallagher, temporary secretary.
Five election judges, F. V. Heine,
Keller, were appointed by Attorney
A. H. Krugmeier, temporary chairman, and these men counted the ballots.

Both the constitution and by-laws were adopted by unanimous vote following their reading by Mr. Krug-meier. A vote of thanks was extended to the organization committee for its work in forming the association.

The by-laws provide that a meeting of the directors shall be held within three days after their election for the purpose of electing officers.
Attendance at directors' meeting is made compulsory, the by-laws providing that if a director misses more than three meetings his attention is

SONORA PEEVED AT CARRANZA'S ACTS

GOVERNOR OF SECESSIONIST
STATE TELLS WHY HE HAS BROKEN WITH MEXI-CAN GOVERNMENT

By United Press Leased Wire
Sonora, Ariz.—The secession of the Mexican state Sonora was caused by the "hostile action" of the federal government of Mexico in sending troops into Sonora without the consent of state authorities, according to a statement given by the United Press today by General De La Huerta, governor of Sonora.

"I beg to request that you make the following explanation," he told the correspondent.

"The stand taken by the state of Sonora is against the unjust attack on our sovereignty that is being made by the central government. Without taking into consideration the repeated petitions which have been made to the federal executive by the state legislature, municipal mayors and numerous citizens requesting a suspension of hostilities,
the central government has continued with these unnecessary and hostile acts by sending troops into Sonora.

"The federal executive had ignored
all petitions. Last Saturday night notice was given that notwithstanding all efforts of the state of Sonora to come to an amicable agreement troops were ordered to invade Sonora immediately. We then announced ourselves independent."

Mexican Consul E. Tamez, Nogales, has announced that his office is now under the authority of the state of Sonora.

While forces are being mobilized
by General P. Elias Calles to resist invasion by federal troops, Sonora railroads are being operated by the state government.

SUIT AGAINST CAMP BUILDERS ORDERED

tion calling upon Attorney General Palmer to start grand jury investigations and civil suits to recover losses alleged to have been caused by the cost-plus system of building army camps.

ALLIES Saved By Occupation Of Ruhr Region

Premier Millerand Avers Both Allies and Germans Protested Entrance of German Reichs-wehr into Turbulent District

(By Henry Wood)
By United Press Leased Wire
Paris.—Both the allied military commissions and the German inhabitants opposed Germany's action in sending Reichswehr into the Ruhr district. Premier Millerand told the chamber of deputies today.

Germany's action was unnecessary and dangerous, the premier asserted in detailing necessity for France's occupation of the German Rhine cities.

The chamber was expected to give the premier's government a standing vote of confidence following Miller-and's speech. The vote was considered necessary to strengthen the premier's position in the coming conference of the council of the Premiers at San Remo.

"By saving the integrity of the peace treaty France has protected the interests of her allies as well as her own," Millerand told the deputies.

"We are proud that noble Belgium understood this and ranged herself alongside us. Her action had increased our affection and gratitude.

"I am happy that the French and British governments have reported an agreement under which both recognize the necessity for the most intimate accord in regulating the unsettled questions still facing the world."

BONUS OF DOLLAR A DAY PROPOSED FOR WAR VETERANS

HOUSE COMMITTEE PROPOSES GIVING ABOUT $1,000,000,000
TO 300,000 SERVICE MEN

Bonus Will be Paid Only to Those Who Suffered Greatest Financial Losses and Must be Applied For by the Veterans

(By Herbert W. Walker)
By United Press Leased Wire
Washington.—A cash bonus of $1
for each day's service would be given to approximately 3,000,000 of the 4,800,000 men in the army, navy and marine corps during the war under a plan that has been approved by the bonus sub-committee of the house ways and means committee. It was learned today.

The program, which will be submitted to the full committee for approval during this week, calls for an expenditure of slightly less than $1-000,000,000 which is to be raised by a tax of one half of one per cent on all sales. It is considered very likely that this plan will be the one which will be submitted to the house in the near future.

With the purpose of limiting the bonus to those who endured heavy financial sacrifices during the war
the sub-committee has eliminated several classes of service men from the groups entitled to bonus. The total number eliminated is estimated at 1,800,000.

Among these classes are:
Those who served less than sixty days because these men already have received the original $60 bonus.
Men who were assigned to industrial plants, such as shipbuilding and received extra compensation therefore.
All officers.
Men in the regular army before
the declaration of war.
Men who, while serving in the army, received compensation from their employers or business interests.
No man will be given the bonus until he applies for it and this, it is believed, will reduce the total expenditure, as many service men who are wealthy are not expected to ask for the extra compensation. The application is to contain an affidavit that the soldier is not in any of the above classes.

The plan calls for payment of the bonus in four equal installments and the sales taxes are to be collected in the corresponding periods.

The average service, the sub-committee has been informed, is ten months, making the bonus about $300. Men who were promoted to be commissioned officers would be paid only for the time they served as enlisted men. The committee is now waiting for estimates from the treasury department as to exactly how much can be raised by tax on sales, but preliminary estimates place
the amount at about $1,500,000,000.

The levying of this tax also would be in the nature of an experiment as there is sentiment in congress for having it replace some of the other taxes later.

WOOD CANCELS SPEAKING TOUR; GOES BACK TO WORK

By United Press Leased Wire
Boston.—General Wood has given up his leave of absence and cancelled all his speaking engagements. It was announced today at the Wood campaign headquarters here.

General Wood will resume his duties as commander of the Central department of the army.

General Wood was given three months' leave of absence in which to tour the country speaking in behalf of his candidacy for the republican nomination for president.

The leave of absence was not scheduled to expire until early in June, just before the national republican convention. General Wood had given up his leave of absence because of the critical situation brot about by the railroad strike, it was announced.

BOTH AMENDMENTS ARE DEFEATED BY VOTERS

By United Press Leased Wire
Medford, Wis.—Both constitutional amendments defeated was the unofficial verdict at the capital today based on returns from thirty counties. The people voted April 6 on amendments proposing increased pay for legislators and reduction of judicial circuits. The first was defeated 23,353 to 45,021, and the second 31,385 to 39,016, on returns received thus far. Secretary of State Hull explained that the lead for the amendments in Milwaukee county had been wiped out and all other counties showed consistently substantial majorities against the amendments. Canvassing of the state was to be started on Friday.

WILSON PICKS Rail Board To End Disputes

Capitol, Labor and Public Have Equal Representation on Board Which Has Final Authority in Railway Wage Disputes

By United Press Leased Wire
Washington, D. C.—President Wilson today appointed the railroad labor board which the Esch-Cummings bill created as final authority in railway wage disputes.

The men named are:
Public representatives—G. W. W.
Hanger, Washington; Henry Hunt, Ex-Mayor of Cincinnati; R. M. Barton of Tennessee.
Labor representatives—Albert Phillips, A. O. Wharton and James J.
Forrester.
Managers' representative—Horace Baker, J. H. Elliott and William L.
Pack.

Under the terms of the Esch-Cummings law, the board is a tri-partite body. Labor and public managers appointed three representatives each subject to the approval of the president who names three members to represent the public.

Labor Leaders Pleased
Chicago, Ill.—News of the appointment of the members of railroad labor board was greeted with satisfaction
by labor leaders here today.

"The appointment of the membership will have a very effective and beneficial result throughout the country," said S. E. Herberling, president of the Switchmen's Union of North America.

"I will have tendency to stop spread of the strike and may cause
many to return to work."

"The appointment will have a wholesome effect," said A. J. Whitney, vice president of the Brotherhood of Railway Trainmen.

"I think it will have a tendency to get the men back to work right away and break the strike in a few days."

Whitney declared that he had no fault to find with the personnel of the board and expressed praise over the appointment of J. J. Forrester, A. O.
Wharton and Albert Phillips as representatives of labor.

"They are all high class men," he said. He also expressed approval of G. W. W. Hanger of Washington, as a representative of the public, and H. Elliott as a representative of the railroad managers.

"I know them both and they are square and fair," he said.

Senate Ready to Act
Washington, D. C.—The senate was ready to act speedily in confirming Wilson's wage board nominations. Attorney General A. Mitchell Palmer intends to start proceeding under the law act to stop the strike if his investigation shows public safety imperiled, he said. This law forbids interference with the transportation of necessaries.

Senator Cummins, chairman of the interstate commerce commission said he would call a committee meeting to pass upon the nomination as soon as possible. Cummins regarded the creation of the board as the one big hope of ending the strike which is crippling the country's railroads, without recourse to drastic action by the government which might have serious consequences.

Palmer Hesitates Palmer apparently is unwilling to act as long as there is a chance of ending the strike by other means.
Palmer said there was an organization behind the strike and that it is being looked into.

In anticipation of quick confirmation of the railway labor board, and of a return to work of the strikers as soon as they learn that their demands for wage adjustments are to be given a full hearing, the senate investigation of the strike is likely to consist of "marking time" to give the board a chance to "get its feet under it."

Spread of the "outlaw" strike of railroad workers, apparently was checked today.

After growth throughout the situation was marked today by cessation of reports of walk-outs of any consequence.

Independent conferences were held in many places in attempts to reach a settlement. The majority of strikers in Syracuse, returned to their posts. Strikers were also reported returning in Chicago and other western centers.

Federal investigation of the strike by the department of inspection was under way in railway centers and Attorney General Palmer was reviewing the situation.

Appointment of the railroad labor board provided by the Esch-Cummings bill, was made today by President Wilson.

Industries were beginning to feel effects of the strike seriously.
Shortage in coal and raw materials were forcing hundreds of industries to shut down completely,
while others curtailed operations.

The food situation was reported as serious in some cities. Mills were delayed. In the east passenger service was crippled.

Citizens were operating commuting trains to New York on many lines, defying their overalls at the terminals to attend to their business. Officials of the brother-hoods continued to urge the strikers to return to work.

RAIL SHOPMEN AND CLERKS TALK STRIKE

REPRESENTATIVES OF A MIL-

MEETING IN KANSAS CITY TODAY

By United Press Leased Wire
Kansas City, Mo.—Spread of the "outlaw" switchmen's strike further in the west may depend today on action expected to be taken by representatives of more than a million shopmen and clerks attending the biennial convention of the railway department of the American Federation of Labor here.

Leaders declared there isn't a chance of the convention endorsing the outlaw strike. Radicals, however, consistently pushed a movement towards getting the convention's endorsement and if the situation found favorable will seek a vote on it.

Government ownership of railroads was advocated in resolutions submitted to the convention today.

Other resolutions approved were:
Wage increases proportionate to the advance of living costs.
Sundays off or time and a half overertime.

The convention will take up requests concerning wage increases and working conditions to be made before the federal labor board April 28. A national agreement and stand-ardization of railroad wages with proper differentials to meet local conditions will be asked.

The convention lasts two weeks.

GREEN BAY MAYOR WOULD BE SECRETARY OF STATE

(Special to Post-Crescent)
Green Bay—Elmer S. Hall, mayor
of Green Bay today announced his candidacy for the nomination for
secretary of state on the republican ticket. Mr. Hall has been mayor of Green Bay since 1916, and previous
to that he was county clerk of Brown
county for eleven years. He was elected a district delegate to the National Republican convention on April 6, carrying every county in the 9th
district.

He has been an active Republican
for thirty years and has been repeatedly elected a delegate to Republican state conventions. It is many years
since the Fox River valley was represented by a candidate on the Republican ticket, and Mr. Hall's friends
believe that this section of the state
is entitled to a representative.

NEWSPAPERS ARE SOLE JUDGES OF WHAT MAKES NEWS

ILLINOIS COURT HOLDS THAT PUBLISHERS ARE SOLE
JUDGES OF THE VALUE
OF NEWS.

By United Press Leased Wire
Chicago.—Newspapers have a right
to decide for themselves what is news
regardless of its effect on any one,
according to a decision of the state
appellate court made public today.

The decision was in the case of Attorney William Keeda, suing the Chicago Tribune for $100,000 damages.

Keeda, a candidate for superior
court judge in 1917, resented the action of the Tribune in publishing a
fac simile of a portion of specimen ballot. The published portion named all parties except Keeda, who was an independent candidate. The Tribune
did not consider Keeda an active candidate.

The opinion of the court said it
was clear that a newspaper in the dissemination of matters of public interest has a right to abandon any department it may have established,
or to add new ones, or to change its policy, political or otherwise, at its pleasure and as it may deem best.

"According to the plaintiff's argument," the opinion says, "defendant
is liable not for what it did, but for what it refrained from doing. It is indeed a novel proposition to make
the defendant liable for its silence.
We must hold that it was obligated to publish in its paper the whole of the fac simile judicial ticket. This we are not prepared to doubt."

"The defendant is the sole judge
of the value of news as such."

was regarded as a corroborative of such threats. It is evident that the committee will be handicapped by the timidity of tenants to testify.

The committee today planned to visit some of the apartments with a view of appraisal.

President L. A. Pratt, Wausau, in the address of welcome, told the visitors that Wausau is ready to entertain them well during the two days.
Governor Craddick responded:
"Wausau has made good."

The biggest noise for the 1921 conference is being made by the Fargo, N. D., delegation. Their life and drum corps invaded all business houses this morning.

Feathers are believed to have evolved from the reptilian scale.

GREEN BAY MAYOR WOULD BE SECRETARY OF STATE

(Special to Post-Crescent)
Green Bay—Elmer S. Hall, mayor
of Green Bay today announced his
candidacy for the nomination for
secretary of state on the republican ticket. Mr. Hall has been mayor of Green Bay since 1916, and previous
to that he was county clerk of Brown
county for eleven years. He was elected a district delegate to the National Republican convention on April 6, carrying every county in the 9th
district.

He has been an active Republican
for thirty years and has been repeatedly elected a delegate to Republican
state conventions. It is many years
since the Fox River valley was represented by a candidate on the Republican ticket, and Mr. Hall's friends
believe that this section of the state
is entitled to a representative.

NEWSPAPERS ARE SOLE JUDGES OF WHAT MAKES NEWS

ILLINOIS COURT HOLDS THAT PUBLISHERS ARE SOLE
JUDGES OF THE VALUE
OF NEWS.

By United Press Leased Wire
Chicago.—Newspapers have a right
to decide for themselves what is news
regardless of its effect on any one,
according to a decision of the state
appellate court made public today.

The decision was in the case of Attorney William Keeda, suing the Chicago Tribune for $100,000 dam-
ages.

Keeda, a candidate for superior
court judge in 1917, resented the action of the Tribune in publishing a
fac simile of a portion of specimen
ballot. The published portion named
all parties except Keeda, who was an independent candidate. The Tribune
did not consider Keeda an active
candidate.

The opinion of the court said it
was clear that a newspaper in the dissemination of matters of public interest has a right to abandon any
department it may have established,
or to add new ones, or to change its
policy, political or otherwise, at its
pleasure and as it may deem best.

"According to the plaintiff's argument," the opinion says, "defendant
is liable not for what it did, but for
what it refrained from doing. It is indeed a novel proposition to make
the defendant liable for its silence.
We must hold that it was obligated to publish in its paper the whole of the fac simile judicial ticket. This we are not prepared to doubt."

"The defendant is the sole judge
of the value of news as such."

was regarded as a corroborative of such
threats. It is evident that the committee will be handicapped by the
timidity of tenants to testify.

The committee today planned to visit some of the apartments with a
view of appraisal.

LIBERTY BONDS FALL TO BELOW 88 MONDAY

GOVERNMENT'S INTENTION TO ISSUE BONDS FEARED HIGH. INTEREST CAUSE OF SLUMP

New York.—The market prices of Liberty bonds crashed downward again today. For the first time the price of a Liberty bond fell below 88, and new low records were made in four issues under heavy selling. The second 4 1/2's dropped to 87.58, the second 4's to 88, the third 4 1/2's to 91.60, and the fourth 4's to 88.05.

At today's auction the current market value for the Liberty bonds as a whole represents a loss of nearly $2,000,000,000 to investors who bought these securities of the government at face value. With the flotation of the last Liberty issue the government announced that there were about 20,000,000 individual subscribers to all series. Therefore the average loss would figure $1,000 for each individual.

Hit by Treasury Move
The slump in the Liberty bond prices was attributed to the announcement of Secretary Houston that the United States treasury would offer soon two new series of treasury certificates of indebtedness, one to pay 5 per cent and the other 5 1/2 per cent interest. The new issues are to total $250,000,000 or more. This announcement led to heavy selling of Liberty bonds by large institutions and wealthy individuals in order that they might buy the higher interest bearing government securities.

In issuing its latest treasury certificates the United States government is paying the highest interest rates paid on government obligations since the civil war. The two new issues, one of three months' maturity and the other of six months' maturity, bear 5 and 5 1/2 per cent, respectively, and taking into account the tax exempten features, they figure to yield 5.55 and 5.83 per cent, respectively. The highest rate heretofore paid on treasury certificates was 4 1/2 per cent.

Advised by Bankers
The treasury was averse last month to accepting the suggestion of bankers that the rate on such certificates could be higher. But the comparative failure in selling the two preceding issues, the continued offering of high grade corporate securities on a basis to yield 7 per cent or better, and, finally, the advice of governors of the federal reserve banks, assembled in Washington to discuss financing, led to the advance in the interest rates on treasury certificates.

BADGER WOMEN HAVE LEGAL RIGHT TO VOTE

MR. KINSMAN EXPLAINS INTERESTING FEATURES OF STATE LAW TO CITIZENSHIP CLASS

At the meeting of the Citizenship class of the Appleton Girls' club last night Dr. D. O. Kinsman discussed the question of voting. An interesting and significant fact which he brought out in his talk is that, constitutionally, women of Wisconsin have the right to vote for presidential electors in fall.

"The framers of the constitution and also the framers of the amendments of the constitution clearly intended to leave to the states the matter of the qualifications of the voters," said Dr. Kinsman. "This is evidenced by a number of provisions, for example, the Fourteenth amendment passed after the Civil War.

"In the constitution of Wisconsin, the qualifications of the voters are specifically designed and it is provided that they shall not be changed until such changes be subjected to a referendum of the voters. When the Twelfth amendment was framed there was incorporated into it an exception to this general rule, providing that electors for president and vice president be selected in such manner as the legislature of each state provides."

SCHOCER AND JAP WILL MEET AGAIN SATURDAY NIGHT

STAR WRESTLERS TO GRAPPLE AT ARMORY G IN RETURN MATCH—LOOK FOR CROWD

Promoter Elmer Johnson returned this morning from Chicago where he succeeded in matching Billy Schocer, world middleweight wrestling champion, and Matty Matsuda, the Jap, for a return bout at the armory next Saturday night. Schocer won the first match here a month ago, two out of three falls.

That the bout will be the fastest and best ever staged in Appleton or perhaps the state is a foregone conclusion. The fans who witnessed the previous encounter have been anxiously awaiting for the return bout and it is expected that a capacity house will witness the match.

Johnson experienced considerable difficulty in securing the John Hancock of the two men to the contract, as both have their schedules almost completely filled. Both are recognized as leaders in the middleweight class and their services are in constant demand.

Schocer will have a slight advantage over the Oriental in weight, but this will be offset by Matty's remarkable speed. Schocer will step into the ring at 160 pounds, with Matsuda weighing 158.

Matsuda shakes a wicked pair of feet as those who saw him in action against Schocer before, can testify. He wiggles out of many dangerous holds by clever handling of his pedal extremities. His great gameness was demonstrated when he endured excruciating pain for ten minutes while Schocer held a double toe hold, before conceding the fall.

Seats were placed on sale for the big bout this afternoon at the Miller and Zuehlke buffet and there was a big run for the pasteboards.

RAILWAY CLERKS SEEKING MORE PAY FOR THEIR LABOR

APPLETON MAN RETURNS FROM CHICAGO, WHERE HE ATTENDED MEETING OF NORTHWESTERN CLERKS.

Thomas Davis, division chairman of the Brotherhood of Railway Clerks of the Northern Wisconsin division of the Northwestern road, returned yesterday from Chicago, where he attended a meeting of the general chairman of the system's boards of railway clerks. He says that threats of a nation-wide strike of 950,000 railroad men demanding a universal wage increase have been precipitated by the strike of switchmen in the Chicago district.

D. J. BOYLE DIES AT HIS HOME LAST NIGHT

PROMINENT RESIDENT SUCCEUMS AFTER LONG ILLNESS—WAS IN INTERNAL REVENUE WORK

Daniel J. Boyle, 54 years old, one of the best known citizens of Appleton, died at 11 o'clock last evening at his home, 525 North street, after an illness of several months. Heart trouble was the immediate cause of death.

Mr. Boyle had been in ill health for a long time and had been confined to his home since January 5, 1919. His condition had been regarded as critical for several weeks.

For the last eight years Mr. Boyle had been connected with the United States internal revenue department as inspector and collector. His head-

High Wages And Prohibition Sound Death Knell Of Hobo

SURVEY IN LEADING CITIES OF THE MIDDLE WEST SHOWS GENUS HOBO NEARLY EXTINCT.

By United Press Leased Wire Chicago, Ill.—Where have all the beggars gone? There are not any, anymore, hardly.

Work at high wages and easy hours is rapidly thinning the ranks of the beggar profession and turning the mendicants into industrious American citizens, according to observers here. "Weary Willies" have also become innoculated with the work germ and their appearance at the back door to "panhandle a hand out" is now rare. A survey of leading cities in the middle west and of the Pacific coast today showed that beggars, hoboes and tramps are quitting their professions to join in high salaried prosperity.

Two years ago Chicago had at least 2,000 beggars, according to Chief of Detectives Mooney here.

"Now I doubt if we have a hundred," he said. "They're going to work. There are still a few here but a sight of one is a rare event."

Earnings of beggars are twice what they were a few years ago, according to a blind mendicant on State street. "People are making good money now and they give liberally," he said. "Of course it costs me twice as much to live."

This beggar said his earnings run between six and ten dollars a day.

There are no idlers in the I. W. W., said Bill Haywood, head of the Industrial Workers of the World. "If there's any hoboes left it's because they prefer idleness."

"Beating" the railroads is also decreasing, according to railroad detectives. Hoboes, they said, are staying in the big cities because they can get jobs whenever they want them.

"Hinky Dink" Michael Kenna, famous patron of hoboes, and whose schooners of beer were known to hoboes from coast to coast, is disgusted with the way things are going.

"I don't know anything about them," he said. "I'm out of that business. Huh, what do I know about hoboes?"

The type of hobo that could formerly be found around a "jungle" fire along the railroad tracks now frequents the cities and stops at hotels where a "flop" can be had for 15 cents or a quarter, according to Salvation Army officials.

"Investigation shows that the boomers, hoboes and floaters are forsaking the country and the small town to come to the city, where higher wages are paid for less arduous tasks," Lieut. Col. Emil Marquessen of the Salvation Army said.

"We have found that the shifting population of the country is made up of a better class than it formerly was. Since prohibition became effective, these men are better clothed, well fed and have more money to spend for other things besides liquor."

CHICAGO EXPRESS REACHES APPLETON

FIRST CONSIGNMENT FROM THE WINDY CITY IN A MONTH—CONGESTION IN THE EAST

It is evident that the shipping situation in Chicago is improving. This morning the American Railway Express company received the first shipment from Chicago since March 9. There was about a wagon load of goods. No explanation has been received by W. N. Kimball, agent, for the sudden release of express from Chicago, but he believes that the express handlers' strike must have come to an end and shipping resumed.

The east appears to be thoroughly congested, however. Orders were received today placing embargoes on shipments to Newark, N. J., Akron, O., Greater New York, Jersey City, Hoboken, Pittsburg and several other points. Rail conditions and the switchmen's strikes are held to blame for this, although no reason is given in the communication except that these places are to be included in the previous embargo orders.

THIEDE IS ELECTED PRESIDENT OF ROTARY

W. O. Thiede was elected president of the Rotary club at the meeting Monday noon at the Y. M. C. A. Directors were chosen a week ago and from their number the following additional officers were chosen: Vice-president, Dr. E. H. Brooks; secretary, George Wetzel; treasurer, Dr. R. H. Purdy; sergeant-at-arms, Gerald Galpin. The remaining directors are Dr. M. J. Sandborn, August Meyer and George H. Packard.

Final arrangements for the convention took up most of the time following the dinner and the election of officers. Twenty-three of the members left for Wausau last evening.

FLOATER OF OTHER DAYS IS RARE BIRD IN APPLETON— SEEKS WET SPOTS ACROSS BORDER

Poor "Weary Willie" who used to sneak down to a secluded place in the ravine below the railroad tracks, there to kindle a fire, roast a hot dog or two, or prepare some other very, very simple menu, has disappeared. His loss is not mourned, nor are the police scouring the country to learn his whereabouts. Genial Mrs. Goodhearted, who often opened her back door to find Willie's whiskered face beaming up her way, is not exactly in mourning or consternation either. Somebody intent on learning what had become of the genus hobo, asked George T. Prim, chief of police, where he went. He doesn't know exactly, but the register of Hotel Prim shows that business has been "rotten" for at least five months. Occasionally some young chap who has the spirit of adventure and lacks the railroad fare or the price of a room, comes for a place to sleep, but the genuine article called a tramp, the kind that ties his belongings in a red bandana handkerchief, whose clothes are all patches, and whose toes stick out from the end of his shoes, never appears any more.

What has become of the hobo is a question not definitely solved, but two things are held to be largely responsible: high wages and prohibition. Work of any kind may be obtained nowadays, and good wages are paid for labor which requires no skill. Under these conditions, the unskilled navigators need not sleep under a tree or beg a bite from the back door of a chalk-marked house. It is ventured also that many of them have headed toward Canada, where liquor may still be obtained. A traveling man who frequently visits the north states that many of the lumber jacks who stored up their money while in camp (they earned real wages this year) take the first train over the line and hunt up a town where prohibition has not entered.

Railroad companies no longer have to contend with the bum, according to R. G. Zuehlke, chief clerk of the Chicago and Northwestern railway. They are never seen along the right-of-way and riding the rods is an outdoor sport that has passed into oblivion. Indeed, according to Mr. Zuehlke, it would be an odd sight to see the tattered degenerate of old ambling toward the city.

Charles Kittner, flagman at the Oneida street crossing, substantiates this statement. He has directed them to the "cooler" many times in past years, but believes the hobo is entirely extinct. This is also the experience of Otto Zuehlke, of Miller and Zuehlke. Bums would frequent the saloons trying to beg drinks, but he states that he has not seen any for as much as a year.

In the past the office of the Appleton Construction company was visited frequently by tramps who wanted work, but they never apply for jobs now. Common labor seems impossible to get, to say nothing of hiring the specimens who would work two or three days, draw their pay and move on.

Printing offices also miss the proverbial "tramp printer," who was at his best setting type when he was half drunk. Members of the fraternity, who journeyed the world through the medium of the print shop, have also faded.

"We haven't seen a tramp printer for two years," stated F. G. Mowle of the Appleton Press. "I distinctly remember the last one who called. When I refused him a job, he asked me for ten cents with which to get to Neenah. You can imagine it was some time ago, since the old fare was still in force."

Beggars who formerly plied their craft in city after city appear to be the victims of the same malady, for Appleton has been more or less free from them for sometime.

MANY OPENINGS IN UNCLE SAM'S SERVICE

CIVIL SERVICE EXAMINATIONS ARE BEING HELD CONSTANTLY—SOME VACANCIES HERE

There are a large number of civil service positions open in Wisconsin and other states, according to information received by H. J. French, secretary of the local examining board. They carry salaries from $900 a year up, depending on the nature of the work, which is along clerical and technical lines.

Examinations are being held continually and application may be made at any time at the federal building. Openings in the carrier and clerical service of the Appleton postoffice will be filled from applicants taking the examination April 21. Several requests have already been filed for examination. These positions carry salaries ranging from $1,200 to $1,650 and those with the highest standing may expect immediate appointment.

Competitive examinations for appointment as railway mail clerk will be conducted May 15. The entrance salary is $1,300 a year, with opportunity to advance as experience is acquired. Ordinary school subjects constitute the questions asked.

Parent-Teachers' Association of the Third Ward will give a dance and card party at Third Ward school Thursday evening, April 15, 4-14.

George O'Keefe and Karl Becker attended the boxing show at Fond du Lac Monday night. Ted Jamieson and Jack Clifford battled to a draw in the wind-up. Chick Remick and Jabber Jung, Menasha scrappers, both scored victories in the opening bouts.

DIRECTORS FOR NEW COMMERCE CHAMBER ELECTED LAST NIGHT

to be called to his failure and if he cannot produce an acceptable excuse within 30 days thereafter he shall cease to be a director and a successor is to be elected.

Annual meetings of the Chamber of Commerce are to be held on the second Monday of March of each year. Regular meetings are to be held at the time and place selected by the directors. Special meetings may be called by the directors at any time and must be called upon the written request of ten members of the association.

It was decided that 20 per cent of the members shall constitute a quorum at any meeting and that at special meetings only such business as specified in the call shall be discussed and acted upon.

Committees to carry on the association's work are to be appointed by the president, subject to the approval of the directors. The by-laws, specifically provide for a membership committee of five members and an auditing committee of three members. Other committees may be appointed and offices created if the directors deem it necessary.

The by-laws provide for the organization of sections by members who wish to join together to further some special object but these sections must not be operated contrary to the regulations governing the association as a whole. The constitution specifically provides that the association must not participate in any controversies of a religious or political nature and must not endorse any candidate for office.

The purposes of the association are set forth in the first paragraph of the by-laws as follows:

"The Appleton Chamber of Commerce is organized for the purpose of advancing the commercial, industrial and civic interest of the city of Appleton; to promote integrity and good faith; just and equitable principles in business; uniformity in commercial usages; and to acquire, preserve and distribute industrial, commercial and civic statistics and information of value; to discover and correct abuses; to prevent or adjust controversies; to have a part as representing our city in the consideration of state and national abuses."

Elections hereafter will be by ballots which are to be deposited in a ballot box in the offices of the association or in some other centrally located place. Printed or written ballots containing the names of all the nominees will be mailed to the members at least six days before election.

It was decided that in referendums each member shall have but one vote but in the election of directors a member may cast as many ballots as he owns memberships.

The report of Mr. Gallagher, who has been acting as secretary since the organization was started, showed that the Chamber of Commerce has 207 subscribers and a total membership of 722. Total receipts, including membership fees and receipts at the organization banquet, were $4,197.50. Expenses to date total $358.79, leaving a balance of $4,095.91 in the treasury.

Benjamin F. Lyons of Beloit, vice-president and general manager of the Beloit Water, Gas and Electric company, visited last night with his mother, Mrs. Bertha Lyons, 715 College avenue, while en route to the Rotary convention at Wausau.

A dancing party will be held next Monday evening at Stark hall, Five Corners. Music will be furnished by the Gibson orchestra of this city.

AN IMPOSSIBLE STRIKE

While the switchmen's strike has assumed serious proportions, and while it has already resulted in the widespread demoralization of transportation, it cannot possibly succeed. Three forces are arrayed against it, any one of which would be a serious obstacle, and all of which combined are irresistible. The first is organized labor itself, which has condemned the strike as illegal and which is exercising its authority and influence to frustrate the purposes of irresponsible leaders to spread the strike over a large territory and possibly involve the country in a grave industrial war. The second is public opinion, which is unanimously against the strike and everything it stands for. The third is the government which is adopting measures to prevent interference with the transportation of United States mails and to promptly punish violations of law. Government intervention in this instance would be entirely hostile to the strikers.

The men who are forcing this outbreak against responsible unionism, not only in Chicago but in many other cities, are guilty of a serious offense. Their acts are a blow directed at organized labor everywhere. They have placed themselves beyond the tolerance of the government, the public and union labor. It is an unfortunate fact that a great many switchmen and other railroad employees are being led into sympathetic strikes without understanding the real issues at stake or the unenviable position they are placed in and required to defend. It is only a question of time, and probably in a very short time at that, when this uprising against law and order and contract obligation will be put down. No such strike as that can ever succeed in the United States. There are already signs of its collapse and it is not unlikely that within the next few days it will go to pieces.

SMALL NATIONS AND THE LEAGUE

All the Latin-American republics and all national divisions of the western hemisphere have now joined the league of nations, except the United States and Mexico, and probably the last named stands aloof only because of its violent internal dissensions. This is a remarkable fact, commanding attention. The eagerness of practically the whole New World—except the United States—to enter the league must be due to something more than the perceptible Latin-American distrust of this nation as the costodian and executor of the Monroe doctrine, doubt and distrust that have grown since the Panama incident. Apparently this eagerness is due primarily to the same motives actuating the small European nations that have joined a league designed to prevent or check desolating wars. The king of Norway voiced the attitude of the weaker nations in all parts of the world when, in announcing his country's entrance into the league the other day, he said: "The league of nations represents the most considerable effort made up to the present to develop the rule of justice among nations, and the future of the league depends upon a development based on the accession of all civilized nations, a general limitation of armaments and the obligation to settle peaceably all international disputes in order to avoid war."

This desire of the smaller nations to put themselves under the wing of the league is significant of their individual helplessness as well as of the need of such a combination of nations as a force for international righteousness. This hope of protection on the part of the weaker peoples ought to put the stronger nations on their honor to realize it if possible. Meanwhile, it is interesting to observe that, in spite of the assumption in this country that with the United States holding aloof the league of nations is and must be a complete failure, the peoples of the old world and of our own hemisphere are rapidly joining this combination that proposes to prevent or check war.

AN ISSUE THAT SHOULD BE DISPOSED OF

In some respects the question at issue between France and Great Britain in the latter's occupation of Frankfurt and other German cities is more serious than that between Germany and France. The British position, as defined by Lloyd George, seems to be that treaty enforcement shall be done by the allies only in concord. It has been intimated that England was irrevocably committed to this policy, and that under any other she would withdraw from participation in the allied machinery for enforcing the terms of peace. England is said to have gone so far as to make a formal diplomatic demand upon France for joint action and no other in Germany. The attitude of France is that while she wishes and will always seek the support of her allies in any step for treaty enforcement, she reserves the right to act alone in protection of what she regards as her particular and vital interests in any case where the allies do not give their assistance.

Back of these opposing positions lie divergent views touching the allied policy in dealing with Germany. England believes the best policy is to aid Germany to get on her feet again even at the expense of modifying the treaty. England appears to believe in taking the German government at its word, and reposing faith in the execution of its promises. France refuses to credit Germany with having undergone any fundamental change of heart and sees in Germany's regeneration a revival of her hereditary enemy, bent upon avenging her defeat and losses in the world war. The British are willing to trust Germany, while France insists on keeping Germany strictly in hand until shown that her security is established.

These differences are easily explained, and are in point of fact quite natural. With the German navy wiped out and German sea power destroyed, England is quite safe. It has nothing to fear on that quarter for many years to come, if ever. It is secure against German attack. France, on the other hand, is exposed to the same perils that she lived under the shadow of for nearly half a century, provided Germany succeeds in evading her promises to disarm and militarism gains ascendancy with the recuperation of her strength and resources. Belgium shares the same danger and consequently is with France in the present dispute.

France now offers to withdraw her troops provided the German forces are taken from the Ruhr basin, and in all probability this will be the solution of the controversy with Germany. While it is stated that no further independent action will be taken by France, the fact remains that France has set up the principle of individual action in enforcing the treaty terms whenever joint action cannot be agreed upon. England has the most persuasive economic reasons for desiring the earliest possible restoration of Germany to solvency. These considerations do not find the same standing in France, which is concerned primarily with national security rather than with economic gain. It will take Germany many years to discharge her obligations under the treaty, and the question of enforcement is therefore a vital one to the allies. So far as the present incident is concerned, the issue is not settled, but in all probability it will be thrashed out before the case is entirely closed. It would be well for all nations concerned if it were disposed of now.

HOW A THERMOMETER WORKS

Did you ever wonder what happened when the mercury climbs in the glass tube of the thermometer on the back porch?

With one or two exceptions, metals expand when they become heated. Mercury, or gallic-silver, is a metal as well as a fluid.

In the thermometer the mercury is sealed in a bulb at the bottom. The tube above the bulb is very small—smaller sometimes than a hair. This slightest movement of the mercury in the bulb will force the mercury in the tube a great distance.

When the air around the thermometer grows warm the mercury in the bulb expands and shoves part of itself up the tube. The tube is made thick so that part of it will act as a magnifying glass so that you can see the tiny column of mercury within.

The best thermometers are those with the largest bulbs and the smallest tubes. The larger the surface of the bulb the quicker the action of the instrument and the smaller the bore of the tube the less expansion or contraction necessary to cause a movement in the bulb to show in the tube.

Clinical thermometers, used by physicians, are very delicately made, and the calibration, or correction of the scale, has to be carefully done. The slightest difference in the size of the tube along its length will make a difference in the reading. The expansion of the glass also has to be taken into account. N. E. A.

Confessions of a Bride

(Copyright, 1920, by The Newspaper Enterprise Association.)

Katherine's Subconscious Mind Reveals Her Interest in Her Own Son
"B-E-N-J-I-E!" spelled Chrys, as she watched Katherine's fingers fly across the ouija board. I nearly dropped my pencil and pad, or rather, I nearly threw them down. I was indignant. Did Katherine Miller care to evoke the spirit of the man who was the father of her child?

I hadn't the least bit of conscience about hearing anything she might betray concerning her mad love for Don Manuel. I had almost hoped that she would disclose, or confess the unpleasant details of her work as a secret service agent in Mexico. Maybe I might discover whether she had actually defected the plotting of certain international spies, as my husband maintained. But the unexpected introduction of Benjie's name into our little seance was intolerable. I had considerable conscience about that. Benjie was our martyred aviator who had been consumed in his falling plane. It wasn't thinkable that a fine spirit like Benjie would ever wander around on earth rapping tablelegs or pushing ouija pointers.

"Wake her up, Chrys—if she is really in a trance—and not pretending!"

But Chrys shook her head in her most automatic manner.
"Not This is too remarkable!" she exclaimed. "Katherine will be the greatest medium of the age! This is the first time I have ever seen an ouija medium go into a trance! And it's the first time I have ever been in direct communication with any deceased member of the Lorimer family. Go on with the record, please!"

The substance of much rapid finger work by Katherine was that Benjie directed the mother of his child to see that the little one received its proper share of its father's, that is, of Benjie's inheritance.

"Some message!" was my only spoken comment. My mind, however, was doing some extraordinarily quick stunts. Certainly I did not accept the message as coming from the spirit of Benjie Lorimer. That would have been miraculous, of course, but to me it was no less marvelous to discover Katherine Miller putting over her own subconscious wish! It was proof of the persistence of mother-love in spite of the opposition of the mother!

Katherine had hidden her baby because it was hers by the law of nature and not by the laws of man. She never referred to it, nevertheless, her subconscious mind revealed her deep maternal interest in the little one. That was quite the most marvelous thing the ouija board could ever reveal to me, I felt sure.

It was possible, of course, that her thought had been suggested by reading about a recent lawsuit which dealt with the rights, or rather denied the rights of an illegitimate child whose sire had belonged to a conspicuous American family.

Or was Katherine tricking Chrys and me? Except for my stubborn scepticism, I think I should have been confused, if not deceived, by her rigid posture, her pallor and her choked voice. My own impression of her will always amount to this:

She spelled out "Benjie" subconsciously and was startled into a trance-like state by the word. Thereafter she conducted herself like some ancient sibyl or prophet. She was ignorant of what she said and did. She came out of the trance quite white and weak, and asked what the ouija board had written.

In the main I regretted the occurrence. I felt that the spectacle had harmed Chrys greatly. She was convinced that the spirit of Benjie had communicated with his relatives and had conveyed to them his personal wish about his inheritance. Now that she had talked with Benjie, Chrys could believe almost anything about spiritism. It was terrible to see her slump from had to worse. Her increasing enthusiasm would stand as a wall to shut her away from Jordan Spence.

OLD MAN WORK

That steam might dissipate our chores
And unify the big outdoors,
Somebody stole it from the kettle
And draped it round with chunks of metal—

And folks from Ninevahs and Nomes
Invade us in our happy homes.

Some fellow seized the lightning's fire
And wrapped it in a copper wire,
Uniting all men in the reach
Of instantaneous thought and speech—

And now the peoples cure and groan
While getting Central on the 'phone.

Somebody made a cotton-gin,
And taught the jenny how to spin.
And woe the shuttle to the wheel
And set the needle in the steel—

So man sweats hard to pinch the coins
To purchase covering for his loins.

Some one invented parchment deeds
And banks and bonds to meet the needs
Of Mammon, who with such a store
Might never work nor worry more.

And Mammon turns dark into day
To guard "his" from its getaway.

So ever with our rainbow dreams
Of twists and turns and plans
For still desire outruns design
Or parallels a line for line.

Dodge as we may or shirk,
We cannot escape Old Man Work!

HOW TO TEST DIAMOND

Diamonds of bright tints, red and greens and blues, are immensely valuable, but where the tint is slight it only destroys the diamond's beauty.

Colors and tints are due to the presence of impurities.

Testing the toughness of a diamond is very difficult and only an expert can be absolutely sure. Imitation gems are made sometimes by cementing a thin layer of real diamond on a glass or other crystal body. If such a gem is placed in oil the division between the real and fake crystal can be seen.

There are a few other crystals that will cut glass, so that they are not fully reliable. Ordinary fakes can be detected with a nail file. Run the file over a corner of the gem. A diamond will not be scratched. No acid will affect the brilliancy of a diamond.

TWENTY-FIVE YEARS AGO

Tuesday, April 14, 1895

Physicians were reporting an unusual number of cases of grip and pneumonia.

Byron B. Park of Stevens Point was at the Mavery.

Charles F. Wilson of New York, the well known felt man, accompanied by F. C. Hovok, was calling upon the manufacturers of the valley.

Prof. John Silvester left for Chicago to meet Miss Gamson, the twelve-year-old niece of Mrs. Silvester, who made the journey from Scotland alone. George Ashman, whose shoulder was dislocated by a fall from a bicycle disengaged with the slugs in which he had been carrying his arm.

The indigent soldiers commission which consisted of D. J. Brothers of Kaukauna, Alfred Galpin and Jacob Kober met at the court house to make the second quarterly apportionment of funds. The sum of $550 was apportioned among eighty-one families.

Stalling at the Outagamie county assessor's office was nearly finished.

Work upon the new green houses at Riverside was progressing rapidly. The buildings were to be completed by July 1.

Announcement was made of the death of Mr. and Mrs. A. G. Parkhurst of Minneapolis, formerly of Appleton.

The Appleton Sewer Pipe company shipped three carloads of nine inch sewer pipe to Little Chute where they were to be used in putting in 1,500 feet of sewers in that village.

At the meeting of the Kaukauna common council the night previous the water works ordinance in favor of Wells, Reickert & Co., of Appleton was unanimously adopted.

B. H. Mills, a graduate of Lawrence university in the class of 1894, left on a pedestrian tour to the Pacific coast and back.

Karl Mathie was engaged as assistant pastor of the Congregational church.

THE PASSER BY

True wit is nature to advantage dressed
What oft was wont, but n'er so well expressed.

We realize that mere man has no place in the scheme of spring cleaning, but we should like to step in the living room long enough to observe that it seems just like war time again with all the blimps going around stumping for presidential candidates.

WHITE (HOUSE) HOPES—NO. 8

To W. J. B.
The joy of our years
And the boast of our pride!
Oh Bryan, the silver tongued,
Why don't you ride?
As long as you run
You'll be out of breath,
And winded and spent,
Meet an untimely death!
There's no room on the donkey.
He is loaded with junk;
But you might find a place
In the elephant's trunk.
There safe packed away,
You could travel at ease,
And serene in cold storage.
Talk as much as you please.

Pardon this intrusion, but sometimes we almost tremble to think what will happen to vaudeville wit should there be no prohibition to talk about. And for that matter, what about the colyum engineers.

FORGOTTEN?

O, how do you fare, over there.
In your orderly graves, side by side.
With the flag of your country aloft
In the breeze overhead,

Do you here
The whisper of spring in the wood.
The song of the lark cascading down
from the blue,

The pipe of the peepers at night.
Even as a chorus of children's voices?
Do you feel the stirring of life all about.

The impulsive out-reaching for light.
The softening, the crumbling of clods?
Do you see
Life flooding the hills and the valleys,
the cities and towns.

Like the charge of a fresh brigade of you, comrades?
From there—overseas—
Comes a wind with a whisper soft:
"Naught have we here but the ashes of sacrifice." M. E. M.

Daylight saving will save—there is no getting around that argument, but there doesn't seem to be much effort on the part of any one these days to save anything.

"For the majority of adults coffee and tea are not only harmful, but are beneficial to the health if taken in moderation," runs the advice from Doc Brady, lumpy by default, who adds that she do, but she don't.

Said Mary: "Some people think that I secured a divorce to permit me to marry again. This is not so. I merely wanted to be free." Such being the case we must conclude that Dong is a faster worker off the screen than on.

Voices from the Past
"Don't tell I told you, because I don't know for sure, but they say she paints."

Sothorn and Marlowe recently played Chicago. A contrib to B. L. T. overheard the following: "What's out this Hamlet person off his nut?" "He ain't really busy—he's stalling. The old cudy (Polonius) thinks he's got something on him."

It is reassuring to know that the peace treaty is not dead, but then it seems to be suffering from a severe case of sleeping sickness.

Spring cleaning will be continued for a couple of days. It never has been mathematically worked out nor scientifically calculated, but we venture the opinion that there is a spring pome for every spring bud, and many of them find their way to our desk. Therefore, spring cleaning. J. T. G.

ENROMATIC HYGIENE—1
Toilet of the Teeth

A popular tooth paste contains, according to the manufacturer, about 22 per cent of alcohol, 21 per cent of chalk, 25 per cent of soap, 27 per cent of glycerin, and dashes of this and that aromatic and a trace of antiseptics.

Plain soap is sufficient for me. Dr. Joseph Head, a recognized authority, remarks in his little volume, "Everyday Mouth Hygiene":

"Tooth pastes and powders have not been accentuated (in this book), as ordinarily they contain precipitated chalk as a basis, and the chalk, when used in any quantity and for any length of time, cuts the enamel, so that in the course of twenty or thirty years the enamel is worn away, leaving the tooth bone exposed to the saliva."

The little scrubbing of teeth I'd do in twenty years would never wear away the enamel. Life is too short to brush the teeth as often or as thoroughly as the good dentist avers is necessary. And as for the medicinal ingredients in tooth pastes and powders and liquids, please keep my medicines separate from my soap. The soap alone is sufficiently antiseptic.

Dr. Head, condemning chalk for brushing the teeth, recommends for those who do not mind the taste plain table salt, sprinkled on the brush and swished in between the teeth after the cleansing has been completed. Following this perborate of soda makes an agreeable antiseptic froth that gives out large quantities of free oxygen, and in the presence of acid secretions makes an alkaline peroxide of hydrogen mixture that is highly pleasing and beneficial.

Merely brushing the teeth, no matter what dentifrice may be used, cannot be considered thorough cleansing. It is necessary to remove bacterial masses and particles of decaying detritus from the spaces between the teeth, and this may be accomplished only by tus from the spaces between the teeth.

ny cases the beginning of this daily use of dental floss, by an individual who prided himself or herself on personal cleanliness, has marked the end of a foul breath which had theretofore defied remedy.

Green stains which brushing will not remove may be removed by brushing with a drop or two of tincture of iodine on the wet tooth brush, and following that by brushing with a few aromatic spirits of ammonia on the wet brush. If further bleaching is desired, the teeth may now be scrubbed, or better rubbed with soft cloth wet frequently with peroxide of hydrogen diluted with twice its volume of water.

A tooth powder which is non-corrosive (free from chalk), agreeable to use, and simple to prepare is this one suggested by Head:

Peroxide of mænesia . . . 60 parts
Perborate of soda . . . 30 parts
Pulverized soap . . . 10 parts
Mix thoroughly in 200-mesh sieve. Flavor as desired.

QUESTIONS AND ANSWERS

Water on the Knee

1. Is water on the knee dangerous?
2. Is it likely to poison the system?
3. Is an operation advisable? (A. T. K.)

ANSWER—1 Usually not. 2. Usually not. 3. It depends on the nature of the injury or the disease which produces the effusion. Water on the knee is not a specific entity, but a condition occurring from injury and from various infectious or inflammations of the knee joint or the capsule or a bursa sac over the knee.

Varicocele
Please tell me whether varicocele causes lost manhood. And where would a person go for a cure? (J. M. C.)

ANSWER—Varicocele is merely an enlarged vein or veins the same as varicose veins in the leg. It does not cause serious results. Any doctor or surgeon can cure it by operation if it causes annoyance. Only dishonest charlatans dwell upon the alleged disastrous consequences of varicocele.

CORN AND OATS BOTH LOWER TODAY

UNSETTLED RAILROAD SITUATION CAUSES HESITANCY IN THE CHICAGO MARKET

By United Press—Chicago, Ill.—Grain futures on the Chicago board of trade today showed a decline of about one cent in corn while oats sank to approximately last night's closing. Trading was light, largely local and somewhat dull, due to the hesitancy of buyers and shippers on account of the strike situation. Reports of large demands for export rye and wheat did not produce the stir in trading they have previously done.

May corn which opened down 1/4 at $1.66, remained the same in later trading; July corn, down 1/4 on opening at $1.59 1/2.

Sept. corn, down 1/4 on opening at $1.54 1/2 fell off 1/4 in later trading. May oats, down 1/4 on opening at 94 1/2 failed to show any change either.

workouts so far as passenger traffic was concerned. The coal was also handling bulk and local shipments.

New York, New Haven and Hartford. Many important trains, including commuter cars, stopped at night.

Lackawanna. Passenger service suspended on freight moved, some through to be resumed.

Pennsylvania. Passenger service curtailed for coal. All freight stopped. Freight local late.

Baltimore and Ohio. Many trains curtailed.

Lehigh Valley. Through trains delayed. Short on locomotives. Local suspended.

New York Central. Service normal except for coal delays. Milk and perishables halted.

Food Supply Limited. West Shore. Passenger normal, freight suspended.

There was no congestion in New York no matter how much mail was subject to delay.

The bulk supply of the city was slightly curtailed. Meat and perishable groceries were also being brought into New York in limited amounts. A slight shortage in coal for all food supplies was noted today in many markets.

Shortage in the supply of news print paper due to the strike had caused all newspapers to greatly reduce the size of their editions and notices were earned announcing many columns of advertising had been omitted.

Industries Close Down. Chicago, Ill.—Middle west industries, cut off from their coal supply, began closing down today throwing out of employment several hundred of thousands and causing a daily loss in wages and business of several million dollars. Despite this, the situation was improved with several roads lifting freight embargoes.

Place, hardest hit by the strike are Detroit, Gary, Ind., the Illinois mine field, St. Louis and Chicago.

For eight days Gary failed to receive a car load of coal and the big steel mills there laid off workers by the thousands. Owing to the shortage in fuel Gary's streets were lightless last night.

Approximately 80,000 workers were reported idle in Detroit today. Other Michigan towns swelled the total of unemployed another 18,000.

Mines are Idle. About half the coal mines of Illinois were idle and 45,000 miners were out of employment, according to Frank Farrington, president of the Illinois miners.

More than a 100,000 were idle here. Some laborers returned to work at the stock yards but there were still 40,000 stockyard workers

CONTRACTORS AND MASONS DEADLOCK

EFFORTS TO SETTLE WAGE CONTROVERSY FAIL NEW TERMS WILL BE PROPOSED TO MASONS

The wage controversy between the Master Builders and the masons is still unsettled, although there is a possibility of adjustment soon. A meeting of the arbitration committee of the masons' union was held Saturday evening at which the master builders were present and an attempt was made to reach a final settlement, but the meeting adjourned without accomplishing its purpose. It is understood that a meeting of the contractors will be held this evening or tomorrow to act upon the terms submitted by the union. The proposition of the union is a 10 percent increase in wages, but has not been made public.

It was reported today that an outside contractor who is a member of the Master Builders' association of the Fox River valley offered a compromise wage of $1.12 1/2 yesterday to men employed on several jobs here in Appleton. This was done on his own responsibility, it was said.

INTER-LEAGUE HONORS GO TO THE NATIONALS

(By Henry L. Farrell)
By United Press Leased Wire

New York—National league clubs took the honors in the several series of inter-league pre-season games.

The total score in games for the series which ended yesterday is 12 to 10 with three tied games, the American league trailing.

The world's champion Reds made the poorest showing of the national league. Pat Moran's men won only five out of thirteen games with the Washington senators and got only one decision out of four with the Yankees.

Thus rather lamentable showing somewhat confirms the report that the Reds derived little benefit from their stay at Miami.

The St. Louis Cardinals, by losing the city series to the Browns at four games to two, cut down the lead piled up by the Giants and Brooklyn robins.

Wanted: Machinist, Machine and Bench Hands. Best Wages and conditions.

Oshkosh Mfg. Co., Oshkosh, Wis.

Brooklyn's feat in winning ten out of sixteen from the Yankees can be classed as a real surprise, and the Braves six to five victory over the Tigers comes close.

The amendment sought is to the effect that increased compensation shall not be paid to miners who are injured while employed in violation of the law. If the employer was misled by representations of the child or his parents.

An amendment of this kind would completely undermine the administration of the child labor law. In every state where employers have been relieved from responsibility for violation of the law when the child misrepresents his age, the scheme has been adopted of having all children who apply for employment sign a statement that they are over permit age. "Children, of course, will claim to be as old as they have to be to get employment," said Mr. Hambrecht. "This amendment would not only promote wholesale lying by children under 17 who must work, but would deprive them of all protection against employment at dangerous machines, and in hazardous occupations. It is as much the purpose of the child labor law to protect the child from his youthful disposition to flirt with the truth, when he thinks it would be to his advantage, as it is to protect him from any of the other infirmities of youth, such as carelessness, clumsiness and the like."

With reference to lying by parents about the age of their children for whom they want to get work, Mr. Hambrecht said: "One of the most serious difficulties met with in the administration of the child labor law is to secure its benefits in the case of vicious, indolent and indifferent parents. What becomes of the rights of the child if the parent may lie away these rights simply that he, the parent, may profit by the child's meager earnings in unlawful employment?"

"The principle which makes the employer responsible for knowing that every child he employs is of lawful age is not a recent innovation," said Mr. Hambrecht, "but has always been the common law of this state." The treble compensation provision was adopted in 1917, but prior to that employers were in a worse position, as the supreme court has held that the unlawful employment of children constituted gross negligence and subjected them to damage in such a sum as the jury might assess. It was agreed by both labor and management that the treble compensation provision be substituted for this uncertain liability under the common law.

"Employers should not be alarmed about the advertising propaganda of this insurance company," said Mr. Hambrecht. "The statement contained in this letter that there is practically no way that an employer can guard himself against this liability is misleading. An employer can protect himself by ascertaining the age of children from documentary evidence and by employing no children in violation of the law. At least 85 per cent of all children in the state can produce birth or baptismal certificates. Employers should always demand documentary proof of age before employing any minor and should become thoroughly familiar with the requirements of the child labor law."

BARRED FROM SCHOOL FOR WEARING OVERALLS

Marinette.—Marinette high school boys to the number of fifty paraded yesterday through the principal streets in overalls as a protest at the high cost of clothing. They carried banners appealing to men to wear overalls only, and went through local stores. One young man walking "in a barrel" led the procession. When the boys reached the school they were barred from their make-ups and had to return and assume their usual clothes. Some of the custodians are now talking of rebelling against the faculty in retaliation for being barred from school.

AUTO OWNERS ARE WARNED TO COMPLY WITH LIGHT RULESINDUSTRIAL COMMISSION CALLS ATTENTION TO LAW WHICH BECOMES EFFECTIVE
MAY 1

(Special to Post-Crescent.)
Madison.—The Industrial Commission in this week sending out a circular letter to motorists and garage owners throughout the state calling attention to the orders on automobile lights which become effective May 1, 1920. After that date it becomes unlawful to operate a motor vehicle on a highway at night unless it is equipped with lights which fully meet the requirements of these orders.

To comply with the new orders, every headlight must be equipped with a device which will effectively reduce glare and at the same time properly illuminate the road. It is not enough to put on the headlight a so-called "non-glare" device. It is equally important that the headlights be properly adjusted. No matter how good the device may be, it is sure to violate the provisions of the new orders if it is not properly adjusted. No motorist will comply with these orders unless he has given attention to the following four points:

(1) The equipment of the headlights with a proper device.
(2) The installation of lamps of a proper candle power rating.
(3) A proper focusing of lamps in reflectors.

(4) The tilting downward of the headlights to an amount depending upon the device used.

"Each motorist can readily comply with these regulations if he will give attention to his lights and maintain them," said John A. Hoeveler, electrical engineer of the Industrial Commission. "Expensive patented lenses need not be purchased in order to be within the law." Instruction as to how each motorist may fix up his headlights to comply with the requirements of the new orders will be published by the Industrial Commission. "Those motorists who prefer to buy lenses should be very careful in their selection of a lens," said Mr. Hoeveler. "All lenses that depend solely upon broadly scattering the lights in order to reduce the glare and dazzle cannot comply with the regulations."

The commission advises motorists who buy lenses to demand a guarantee that lenses as installed on the car of the seller comply with the commission's orders. The commission also advises garage owners and dealers in automobile accessories to sell only lenses and devices which the manufacturer will guarantee to comply with the orders, when installed in accordance with the directions supplied by the manufacturer.

MORE PUBLICITY FOR VICE DISEASESOLD ATTITUDE OF SILENCE MUST BE ABANDONED, STATE HEALTH BULLETIN
AVERS.

(Special to Post-Crescent.)
Madison, Wis.—Reviewing the Wisconsin campaign against the social disease menace, the quarterly bulletin of the state board of health this week warns against the disastrous results of taboos and public discussion.

"The old attitude of hypocritical silence must be abandoned," it declares. "The public educated, and a public sentiment aroused which will demand of public officials that the same principles of reporting and when necessary isolation which are applied to smallpox and other communicable diseases shall also be applied to venereal diseases."

"The rapid spread of this scourge within the last two decades is held to be diminishing life expectancy, not stopping with the individual, but victimizing his children as well."

"If venereal disease killed its victims promptly, like pneumonia, it would at least exert a selective influence on society as a whole," the bulletin continues. "But its results are not often immediate fatalities, but rather a long list of secondary and far-reaching effects, including insanity, locomotor ataxia, apoplexy, degeneracy of offspring, rheumatism, blindness of new-born babies, operation procedures on women, and chronic ill health. It is fortunate that the government, both state and national, is no longer blind to this peril."

Wisconsin has by statute brought venereal diseases into the class described as highly communicable diseases, rather than as diseases of vice alone, or so-called social diseases, and along with other states into effect measures as drastic as have been adopted for dealing with smallpox. These include compulsory reporting of cases (by serial number), establishment of clinics in leading cities, and education of the public by addresses, publications, films and exhibits.

DOUGLAS COUNTY OFFICERS
GIVEN A SALARY ADVANCE

Superior, Wis.—Provisions for an increase in salary for all county officials, beginning with the next term of office, and a blanket raise of 10 per cent for all employees of the county, are included in resolutions adopted unanimously by the Douglas county board. County officers are given a raise of $200 to $400 a year with the exception of the county judge, who was raised from $2,300 to $4,200.

PORTAGE COUNTY SEEKS MAN FOR A $3,000 JOB

Stevens Point, Wis.—The job of county agricultural agent in Portage county is going begging, despite that the agricultural committee is willing to pay $3,000 and expenses to the right man. James Lacey, now agent of Green Lake county, who was elected and accepted, has now declined, his salary having been raised to the same amount he was to get here. Less than two months ago, Dan P. Hughes, principal of the Dunn county training school at Menomonie turned the job down after having accepted it, for the same reason.

DODGE COUNTY'S 1920 ROADS
HAVE $346,099 AVAILABLE

Juneau, Wis.—Unless the price for labor and material become excessive, there will be about $346,099 in road construction money besides what will be spent for maintenance of roads already constructed. This sum is made up of $28,000 appropriated by the state and $318,099 available from the federal government.

LA CROSSE COUNCIL
ADOPTS CITY PLANALL FACTIONS AND CLIQUES ARE FORGOTTEN IN EFFORT TO MAKE LA CROSSE A BETTER CITY

La Crosse, Wis.—A new civic spirit has been born in La Crosse as a result of a campaign to induce the common council to adopt the city plan, prepared by John Nolen, famous landscape artist of Cambridge, Mass. The plan was adopted by a unanimous vote of the council.

Classes and cliques have for the time been forgotten in the zeal of citizens interested in the new movement, to consummate a plan which, it is believed, will make La Crosse the most beautiful city in this section.

Campaign of Education
Frank P. Hixon and L. C. Colman, who have been liberal donors to park funds, and for other public improvements in the city, were mainly responsible for the drafting of a city plan by John Nolen. Following the completion of the plan, a systematic campaign of education was launched by various clubs, fraternal societies and other organizations.

W. S. Woods, civil engineer, and Dr. H. C. Evenson, father of the public market here, assumed the burden of a speaking campaign which in the last month greatly stimulated interest.

Vote for First Unit
So strong is the sentiment in favor of the city plan that the first unit providing for establishment of a community center in north La Crosse was adopted by unanimous vote.

Other units of the city plan will be urged from time to time as needs of the city develop and funds are made available for the purpose. The city plan, Mr. Woods has emphasized at all meetings where he has spoken, will be worked out over a long period of years.

SALE OF ADULTERATED
FOOD BRINGS THE LAWState Dairy and Food Commissioner
Warns Grocers and Food Dealers That Law Must Be Complied With.

(Special to Post-Crescent.)
Madison, Wis.—Dairy and Food Commissioner George J. Weigle yesterday issued a warning to the proprietors of all groceries, meat markets, confectionery stores and other retail establishments selling milk and cream that prosecution would follow the sale of these products if they were not up to the legal standard.

Under the Wisconsin law milk must contain at least 3 per cent and cream at least 18 per cent of butter fat. Inspectors have found numerous cases where alleged "cream" was so thin that it contained only from six and one-half to ten per cent of butter fat. "We are going to stop the sale of these adulterated and illegal foods," said the commissioner, "and from now on we are going to hold the dealer responsible for the quality of what he sells. We shall do everything in our power to protect the public from frauds of this nature."

Retailers can avoid trouble in just one way, according to Mr. Weigle, and that is by securing with the milk and cream which they buy a guarantee that it complies with the law in all respects.

Australia imported $120,000,000 worth of goods from the United States last year.

BUTTERMAKERS' PAY NOW
$3.00; UP FROM $3.84

Eau Claire, Wis.—Officers chosen for the Northwestern Wisconsin Buttermakers' association were: E. P. Eckwirth, president; Ted Hirs, Elk Mound, vice president; Lacey Dickey, Glenwood, secretary-treasurer; directors, R. P. Caldwell, River Falls; Mr. Thompson, La Crosse, and John Sullivan, Chippewa Falls. James Sorenson, former dairy and food commissioner of Minnesota, one of the principal speakers, urged a tri-state organization of Minnesota, Wisconsin and Iowa and the best possible butter on a minimum scale. He told how thirty years ago he worked for $32 a month, $384 a year, while now a butter operator may command $2,000 a year.

50,000 TENTS FOR EVICTED FAMILIES

WOEFUL HOUSE SHORTAGE IN CLEVELAND TO BE SOLVED BY EFFICIENT, COMMON SENSE CO-OPERATION
(Special to Post-Crescent)
Cleveland—This city's housing problem is to be solved by efficient, common-sense co-operation of all classes.

Headed by the Cleveland Real Estate Board, a joint committee representing commercial, civic, technical and labor organizations together with public officials divided the problems.

It was decided, first, to curb rent profiteering; second, to provide temporary homes for evicted tenants; third, to launch a building campaign to put an end to house shortage.

The city government carried the fight to the profiteers. It has made eviction suits difficult, collected data on landlords, listed building sites and homes and resurrected an old law requiring a tenement tax to enforce where profiteering exists.

The city has asked the War Department for 50,000 tents for the use of homeless citizens. These tents will be set up in parks this summer under the supervision of the city health authorities.

But the greatest part of the work will be done in the building campaign. Manufacturers are asked to pledge themselves to loan money to workers to build homes and to restrict plant expansion until homes are provided for workers. Architects are designing standard homes and plumbers and carpenters devising cheap systems of building.

Material dealers are to supply material at quantity rates. A non-profit company will obtain funds from citizens for loan to small home builders and in much the same way that war drives were conducted.

The campaign is just getting under way here, but it is expected that within 30 days more than 200 new homes will be under construction.

SPANISH WAR VETERANS WILL GO TO FOND DU LAC
Racine, Wis.—The twenty-first annual encampment of the department of Wisconsin, United Spanish War Veterans, and the annual convention of the Ladies' auxiliary, will be held in Fond du Lac, June 15, 16 and 17. These dates were selected by the department officers at a meeting in Fond du Lac.

There will be quite a contest for the office of department commander, the candidates being Senior Vice Department Commander Doolin, Milwaukee, and Junior Vice Department Commander Zellish, Madison. Baraboo, where a camp of United Spanish War Veterans was recently mustered in, will make a bid for the 1921 encampment. The national encampment will be held in St. Louis the first week in September.

All local organizations of war veterans will hold joint memorial services, Monday, May 31, as Memorial day this year falls on Sunday. A program is being arranged by committees representing the Grand Army of the Republic, United Spanish War Veterans and American Legion. It is the plan of the Spanish War Veterans and American Legion to march to Mound cemetery in the morning and hold memorial services, and in the afternoon join with the Civil war veterans and have services in a hall or park.

GRAND JURY WILL CALL REV. STRATON IN VICE CRUSADE

STARTLING EVIDENCE WILL BE PRODUCED AS FIRST STEP IN RIGID ANTI-VICE DRIVE

(By H. P. Burton)
(Special to Post-Crescent)
New York—As the direct result of the trip through Manhattan's vice zone, made by Rev. John Roach Straton, pastor of Calvary Baptist church, along with myself and a detective furnished by the Committee of Fourteen, the grand jury has just summoned Rev. Straton to tell of all he saw. The minister will appear late this week.

I have also been summoned to corroborate Rev. Straton's narrative. In addition to this, the New York police vice squad descended Monday night on Peters restaurant on West 97th-st, one of the places visited by the preacher and described by him.

Here the detectives charge they purchased liquor as Dr. Straton did on open order and the place was then raided and the proprietor and several of his employees arrested. The police say they took $3000 worth of liquor from the cellar.

The New York newspapers have been featuring the revelations of Dr. Straton, as their leading news and some of them say that these will cause a second inquiry into police methods.

"We're Just Starting"
"We have God on our side," said Dr. Straton, "and we are going to clean up this city in a way that it has never been cleaned before."
"We have just commenced; but we already have the forces of evil on the run and we are going to keep them there."

"I believe newspapers in drawing attention to my trip through the vice palaces of New York have done a public service that will come to be known as one of the greatest of the century. It will cause the saving of thousands of young lives that might otherwise have been wrecked. All day long weeping mothers have been calling me on the telephone and com-

MINISTERS' ASSOCIATION PREPARES TO ESTABLISH RELIGIOUS DAY SCHOOL IN CITY

Plans for a religious day school were discussed at the meeting of the Appleton Ministers' association yesterday. Methods used in various cities were presented and the pastors decided to investigate the Toledo, O. plan as the most practical one for Appleton. A conference will therefore be held in the near future to which Dr. A. W. Tretton, of the educational and psychological department of Toledo university will be invited. Dr. Tretton has had wide experience in the establishment of week-day Bible schools.

The plan of the conference will be three-fold, first presenting the proposition to the ministers, then to the Sunday school and church workers and in the evening to the general public. No date has been set, but it is expected that the meeting will be held early in May. A committee consisting of the Rev. G. W. Stickney, H. B. Frame and the Rev. L. R. Burrows has charge of arrangements for the conference.

Other matters of interest to the local churches were taken up and a paper, "The History of the Doctrine of Redemption," was read by Dr. Samuel Plantz.

OSHKOSH TO BUILD A STOCK SALE PAVILION

Oshkosh, Wis.—The Winnebago County Livestock Sales Co. has been formed here, with a capital stock of $50,000 and with a membership made up largely of stock raisers of the county. Final action has been taken on the matter of establishing a livestock sales pavilion. The enterprise will be located at Oshkosh.

The company has secured as a site the Findelsen property on Marion-st., near the business district of the city and will erect a building 100 by 240 feet in size. There will be a cattle ring and amphitheater, besides room for meetings and for offices. The site is bounded by three streets and has excellent railway switch connections on two railroads. Neenah made a determined effort to get the pavilion but was unsuccessful. It is expected that reports from the sale of blooded stock in this vicinity in the next few years will be of record size.

MORE LUXURIES ARE DEMANDED BY FAST LIVING AMERICANS

NATION IS RICHER THAN EVER BEFORE AND HAS TRIPLED LIVING PACE OF THREE YEARS AGO

(By James Heller)
(Special to Post-Crescent)
New York—This nation is richer than it has ever been before—peace is even adding faster to its wealth than war did!

It is living at a faster pace now than it was one, two or three years ago.

It is demanding and obtaining more luxuries, more and more. In 1914 hundreds of millions worth of American securities were held abroad. Now this situation is exactly reversed. Not only has this government lent the allies huge sums of money, but the private citizens of the United States own literally billions of dollars' worth of foreign bonds.

Every Nation Owes U. S.
We are the greatest creditor nation today in all history. Every country owes us money. And we are only beginning to spend it!

Customs collections in New York for the month of March beat all previous records by nearly $300,000, and this tells only part of the truth. The best previous month was in 1910, when there was still a high tariff. The duty on many articles has been lessened since then and many on which an impost was then levied today comes in free. So last month's record beat the previous mark by much more than these figures show. The latter follow:

March, 1920.....$22,281,878.58
Best previous month.....21,988,921.72
Customs house officials here declare that this country now owns two-thirds of all the precious stones in the world. There is no apparent slackening in the demand, despite the fact that prices are now 500 to 600 per cent higher than they were before 1914.

Americans Take Holland Jewels
Our stones come chiefly from Holland. In February of last year imports from that country were $1,574,469. February of this year they were $10,439,294—almost ten times as much!

Cut stones come, for the most part, from South Africa. Imports from British South Africa were $11,005 in February of last year. In 1920 they went up to $2,064,456.

Other commodities that are being imported in large quantities are laces, silks, jewelry, chinaware and antiques.

"We've got the money," seems to be the cry. "Let's spend it!"

The Stage

TEA FOR THREE
A theatrical event for which patrons of the theatre have been looking forward to for some time with impatience is announced for the Appleton Theatre. It is the forthcoming engagement of "Tea for Three," featuring Cooper Meegre's sterling comedy hit which is presented under the direction of Tyson & McCoy and this comedy will be seen here exactly as it was presented at Maxine Elliott's Theatre, New York, where it ran for over an entire year.

"Tea for Three" is a brilliant bit of writing. Critics have proclaimed it to be the best play of its kind to come from the pen of an American playwright. Moreover, it is one of the most dramatic stories ever told on the stage.

The strongest proof of the excellence of this attraction is the fact that since it was first offered to the public it has been seen by more people than any other play of similar character and the first unfavorable criticism has not yet been uttered.

To tell the story of "Tea for Three" would be to deprive theatregoers of the pleasure in store for them. Suffice to say it is intensely interesting, highly dramatic and withal so thoroughly human that it is veritably a slice of real life.

"Tea for Three" will be seen here Thursday, April 15th.

Arthur Middleton
The concert by Arthur Middleton of the Metropolitan Opera Company will be the ninth number of Appleton's Community Lecture and Artists Series. He will appear on Friday evening April 16th at 8:20 o'clock in Lawrence Memorial chapel. Tickets on sale at the Y. M. C. A. Thursday and Friday.

Arthur Middleton Continues to Win Laurels

It is good to see an artist of the calibre of Arthur Middleton, winning the success and recognition that he so richly deserves. This splendid American singer has long been considered by musicians as one of the most gifted and representative of our native artists. That this same recognition is being accorded him by the press wherever he appears is evidence of a recent concert appearance of Mr. Middleton in connection with Leopold Godowsky at Lawrence, Mass. "Mr. Middleton has been aptly styled the McCormack among baritones," said the Lawrence Daily Eagle, "and no doubt a great compliment was bestowed upon him. To be compared to McCormack as a lyrical and interpretative singer is indeed high praise. Mr. Middleton is an exceptional baritone. His naturally big voice is controlled and used in a truly refined manner. He won his audience by the sheer beauty of his tones and phrasing, and by the intelligence and lofty style of his diction and enunciation. It is so seldom that we hear singers who merge to perfection the salient elements of good vocalism that the appearance here of Mr. Middleton will be a red letter in local musical annals."

LEAGUE ISSUE MAY REACH DECISION IN GEORGIA PRIMARY

SMITH-PALMER CONTENT APRIL 20 WILL DECIDE WHERE DEMOCRATS STAND ON RESERVATIONS

(By Harry B. Hunt)
(Special to Post-Crescent)
Atlanta, Ga.—The part the League of Nations is to take in the coming presidential election, if any, will in large measure be determined by the results of the Democratic primaries to be held in Georgia, April 20.

Georgia, is of course, a Democratic state. The League of Nations is, by edict of President Wilson, laid down in his Jackson Day letter to party leaders, a Democratic issue. As the lines are now drawn, Georgia Democrats are offered an opportunity to express their favor for any of the following positions upon the treaty:

ONE—Ratification of the treaty unchanged, as urged by President Wilson.
SECOND—Ratification of the treaty with reservations; substantially as voted down by the Senate.
THIRD—Rejection of the entire treaty and league covenant, as advocated by the Senate "irreconcilables."

These three positions are represented, respectively, by the candidates in Georgia of Atty. Gen. A. Mitchell Palmer, Senator Hoke Smith and Thomas C. Weston, former Populist candidate for president.

The real battle
As a vital factor in the fight, Watson may be eliminated.
Palmer, as champion of the Wilson administration "in its every phase," including the peace treaty exactly as signed at Versailles, and Smith, endorsing the administration in general but against its effort to include cotton in the food control bill and for adoption of protective reservations to the peace treaty.

Victory for Palmer in the Georgia primaries, then, will mean that the democrats of this state stand by Wilson in his demand for ratification of the treaty without reservations, and will put the Palmer candidacy on a firm footing.

Victory for Smith will mean repudiation of the president's last-ditch stand on the treaty.

Bearing of League
But victory for Smith will mean more than that.

It will mean that the League of Nations, without reservations, probably can never be made a successful issue for the Democratic party in the campaign.

For if it is repudiated in a solidly Democratic state, with a member of the president's official family as its champion, it could not reasonably be expected to fare better in the debate or Republican states of the north.

And it means further, for the same reason, the collapse of Palmer's pretensions to Democratic leadership on a platform upholding the Wilson administration "in its every phase."

Might Bring Ratification
One of the points most strongly urged by the Smith followers and which may be a very effective factor in the campaign, is that defeat of Palmer would reveal so plainly the "handwriting on the wall" with respect to making the unreserved treaty a winning issue in the campaign, that Senate Democrats who stood in line for the president and defeated it with reservations WOULD THEN QUICKLY LINE UP IN FAVOR OF RESERVATIONS, with the result that the treaty could be recalled by the Senate and DISPOSED OF BEFORE JUNE 1. That, however, is scarcely within the probabilities.

What is certain, however, is that the Palmer-Smith fight in Georgia will be perhaps the most bitterly contested fight in the whole United States—not excepting the Wood-Lowden fights in Illinois and Michigan or the Wood-Harding battle in Ohio.

Machines Oiled Up
Palmer and his backers will bring to bear all possible pressure of the federal machine in Georgia, and himself fitted many of the coes. He has a strong state organization, too.

Oh, it will be a real fight, all right, for these Georgians take their politics as they used to take their liquor—and still do, surreptitiously—seriously. And, as the following will show, this is a serious fight.

Smith, even more than Palmer is fighting for his political life. He voted in favor of reservations to the treaty. He must stand for re-election to the Senate this fall.

Smith's friends do not expect to urge his candidacy for the presidency seriously. A Smith victory, however, would really mean that Georgia's 28 delegates to San Francisco would go uninstructed.

MUSKRAT SEASON TO CLOSE NEXT THURSDAY

ANNUAL CATCH OF RODENTS ENDS IN FEW DAYS—THREE COUNTIES CLOSED ALL SEASON

The season for taking muskrat closes in 18 northern counties April 20, and in all other sections of the state on April 10, the Wisconsin conservation commission warns in a circular letter sent to all deputy conservation wardens. The season in Brown, Oconto and Washington counties has been closed all year and the ban on muskrat in these counties will not be lifted until Oct. 25, 1921. It was said that the muskrat population of the above three counties was threatened with extinction as a result of heavy catches made last year and the year before by trappers from these counties. Experts say the season should be closed longer in order to allow the rodents to again recuperate in numbers.

Muskrat skins are bringing a fancy price in the fur markets this year and large numbers of them have been trapped by fur hunters. In its letter the commission has the following to say concerning the handling of skins:

"The law provides that all skins must be disposed of on or before the fifth day of the closed season. We can not give and must refuse to give any trapper a special permit to ship fur hides after April 15 or April 25, depending upon the closing date in the county."

NORTHERN PAPER MILLS' TRIM LAKOTA CARDINALS

Fond du Lac, Wis.—Basketball fans of this vicinity were treated to one of the best cage games ever played on the local floor Saturday night when the Northern Paper Mills five of Green Bay defeated the Lakota Cardinals of Janesville by a score of 14 to 13.

The contest was a nip and tuck affair and at the close of the first half the score stood 7 to 7. The two teams had not before and each team was credited with one victory over the other. They decided to play upon a neutral floor for the state professional basketball title.

Williams starred for the Janesville quintet in both defensive and offensive work; while Wheeler played a stellar game for the Green Bay aggregation.

1,800 OUTAGAMIE VETERANS RECORD DISCHARGE PAPERS

REGISTER OF DEEDS HAS DISCHARGES OF 1,552 SOLDIERS AND 276 SAILORS ON RECORD

More than 1,800 soldier and sailor discharges have been registered with A. G. Koch, Outagamie county registrar of deeds. According to figures compiled at the office at the court house Monday, 1,552 soldier and 276 sailor discharges, a total of 1,828, have been received for record. This total is equal to any in the state considering the size of Outagamie county.

This county leads Brown county by more than 100 in the soldier discharges recorded, as only 1,500 discharges have been recorded there. Marinette is also in the rear with 1,200. Winnebago county also ranks behind this county.

By a recent act of the state legislature, service men have the opportunity to record discharges without cost, except in counties where a fee basis is charged for filing. The purpose of the law is to aid the soldiers in case it ever became necessary for them to refer to their army record and their discharge papers had been lost or destroyed.

The payment of the state bonus has also caused many ex-service men to record discharges in order to protect against a loss of the document thru the mails.

A new certified copy of the discharge may be obtained from the registrar of deeds for a small fee if the original copy is lost. The certified copy is accepted by the government as original.

Considerable difficulty was experienced in deciphering the signatures of officers and men on the discharge blanks, according to Mr. Koch. Almost without exception, he said, there was a considerable difference of opinion as to the correct spelling of the officer's name on the discharge.

PROSPERITY PUTS STOP TO ASHLAND BOAT LINE

Automobiles Furnish too Much Competition to Ferries and Wages of Laborers Have Gone Way Up

Ashland, Wis.—High wages and the increased cost of almost everything has wiped out the daily ferry service between Ashland and Washburn, which has been in continuous service during the navigation season for more than thirty years.

It will probably discontinue the runs between Ashland and Bayfield, the Apostle islands, which heretofore has not stopped a season since the eighties.

The wages of engineers, which were $75 a month a few years ago, are now in some cases as high as $190 a month and board. All classes of wages have increased proportionately and coal is higher. Docks are obliged to charge high figures, with labor demanding $1 an hour. All passenger vessels have been severely hit during recent years, by the increased use of automobiles. During the last season trucks carried considerable freight between Ashland, Bayfield and Washburn, beating the freight service of boats and the railroads.

The completion of a fine macadam road along the bay front, with almost everyone running some form of auto, has resulted in almost wiping out the passenger traffic of vessels.

How to Keep Baby Smiling and Well

See that the daily functions are regular and normal

YOU can't expect the little ones to be happy and playful when the head feels dull and the stomach bloated. The normal habit of children is to be happy and when you notice them cross and fretful you will usually find constipation is responsible.

Perhaps they have missed that daily function so necessary to comfort and health. Look at the tongue and see if the breath is bad. Watch for belching. These are the tell-tale symptoms of constipation. Tonight give a little of Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin, which you can buy at any drug store, and it will act in the morning and the troublesome symptoms promptly disappear.

Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin is a combination of simple laxative herbs with pepsin. Unlike the harsher physics it acts gently and without griping so that while grownups can use it freely it can also be given to a tiny baby with perfect safety. Thousands of American families would not think of being without a bottle in the house for the emergency arises almost daily when it is needed.

In spite of the fact that Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin is the largest-selling liquid laxative in the world, there being over 6 million bottles sold each year, many who need its benefits have not yet used it. If you have not, send your name and address for a free trial bottle to Dr. W. B. Caldwell, 511 Washington St., Monticello, Illinois.
